SAN JOSE (March 27, 2006) – Past and present Olympians including several Bay Area participants in the 2006 Turin Winter Olympics will be honored Tuesday, April 11 at Olympic Night at the San Francisco Giants.

Baseball and Olympic fans may attend that day's game in AT&T Park between the Giants and Houston Astros, at which the Olympic athletes will sign autographs and participate in pre-game ceremonies, by ordering tickets sponsored by the Bay Area Sports Organizing Committee (BASOC). Fan ticket packages are available at www.sfgiants.com/specialevents or at (415) 947-2749 and include reserved seats in the Olympic Night section and a one-of-a-kind commemorative baseball cap.

Proceeds from Olympic Night at the San Francisco Giants benefit Olympic and Paralympic youth sports programs in the Bay Area. BASOC is a 501 (c) (3) non-profit organization.

The San Jose Sports Authority is the sports marketing agency for the City of San José. Since its creation in 1991, the Sports Authority has brought more 150 events to the city as well as supporting programs that benefit local amateur and youth sports. Visit us on the Web at www.sjsa.org.
